The condition of the local national banks and trust companies, as exhibited in their last reports to the Comptroller of the Currency, is interestingly shown in the accompanying comparative statement, compiled by the "Financial Review," and contained in its current issue, published today. As compared with the statement of March 28, 1904, it shows a net aggregate loss in deposits of $1,823,373, and in loans of $74,101.87, while compared with the statement of June 9, 1903, the net aggregate loss in desposits is $756,551.66, but there is a net aggregate gain in loans of The loss in deposits, as between March 28 and June 9, 1904, is probably due to the heavy withdrawals caused by the payment of taxes.

United States preferred was also in demand, rising more than a point. Amalgamated Copper made a further fractional improvement and Anaconda sold up 2\(\frac{1}{2}\) per cent. The strength of London Copper shares had a favorable influence. The market, with very few exceptions, shows a strong undertone, and stocks are absorbed freely on all fractional recessions. Government bonds unchanged. Other bonds firmer.

London sold about 5,000 on balance. The market after II o'clock was narrow and with less doing than the tape would indicate. An unusual proportion of the dealings was short covering.

In spite of all the dismal predictions that the much dreaded contraction of business that set in in the spring would grow worse, at the present hour it is obviously growing better; general railroad earnings, for instance, show im-provement, and a distinctly more hopefui tone is visible in business circles. Looking the country over, it is seen that business is going on at a rate fully equal to that of 1902, with railroad earnings larger than in that year, and bank clearings as large, if those at the cen-

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 20.-Mrs. Daniel Manning and Mrs. Donald McLean, both of New York, are candidates for president of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and are in a midst of a warm social campaign for the honor. Mrs. McLean's admirers say she should be elected because Mrs. Manning has but recently been chosen president of the board of lady managers, and they onsider this enough honor for the time

The election will not be held until next March, but the campaign began long ago, and it is something more than lukewarm by this time. Just now there ar St. Louis so many ladies who are for either Mrs. McLean or Mrs. Manning that it was feared there would be, perhaps, too much partisanship in St. Louis social circles when the two ladies came into contact at the fair.
